1st April 1958]

MR. SPEAKER : I have no objection. We can take it up day after to-morrow. But, I must may that the usual practice is that the hon. Member concerned should ask for the postponement of the question, and somebody else should not ask for such postponement. This time I have allowed it but hereafter I will not allow it.

SRI V. K. RAMSWAMY MUDALIYAR : If the hon. Member concerned is unavoidably absent, can he put it in writing that his question may be postponed?

MR. SPEAKER : Of course, I will allow that.
